FIGHT WITH ROBBERS

An Old Couple's Terrible Experience.

BOUND BY THREE MASKED MEN.

A Plucky Young Farm Hand Comes to the Old People's Rescue Before Anything Valuable is Secured—He Receives a Pistol Wound for His Bravery.

WARSAW, Ind., Oct. 23.—Word has just been received in this city that the residence of an aged couple named Monteith, near Ormus, a Whitley county hamlet, was entered by three masked burglars about midnight last night. They bound the old people, hand and foot with a clothes line, and, placing a revolver at the head of each, endeavored to compel them to tell where their money and valuables were secreted.

The old gentleman defied the burglars, and expressed a willingness to die rather than surrender his savings to them, but the old lady, frightened almost to death, gave the robbers instructions where they would find the key to the bureau-drawer, in which some $800 in money and valuable jewels were placed.

The key, she said, has been hidden in a hole in the wall, and while the burglars were engaged in searching for the key which was to admit them to the treasure box, the "hired man" of the place, Frank Borlow by name, a stout young fellow, 19 years old, arrived in the dooryard, and, perceiving the light in the house, took in the situation at a glance. The lamp was burning on a stand near the window. He seized a stout club that was lying near, smashed the window into fragments, reached the door and extinguished it.

The burglars made a break for the door through which they had effected their entrance. The gritty young farm hand grabbed the last one and a struggle ensued, while the other two burglars fled. The young man was much the stronger of the two and soon had the robber under control, when a ball from a revolver, fired by one of the other burglars, who had returned to look after their companion, struck him in the right shoulder and the brave young fellow's arms dropped to his side, while the robbers took to their heels and made their escape across the fields.

The plucky young man entered the house, and with his uninjured arm released his aged employer and wife, and then proceeded to rouse neighboring farmers, who made a search of the neighborhood, but no trace of the robbers could be found.

AN ENGINEER RESPONSIBLE

Freight and Passenger Trains Collide in a Tunnel.

SOMERSET, Ky., Oct. 23.—Southbound train No. 9, on the Cincinnati Southern, ran into a freight train in a tunnel at Sloan's Valley, a few miles south of this city.

One fireman and a conductor were killed outright, while several others were fatally injured.

Killed.

Two add to the horror of the situation the front cars of the passenger train took fire, and an express messenger and two postal clerks were burned. The names of the postal clerks are C. L. Doegan and J. G. Gayle, both of Cincinnati. The former leaves a family.

The other killed were: Fireman Welsh, of Cincinnati; Fireman Gould, of Cincinnati; Brakeman J. E. Montgomery.

Injured.

Engineer Pimlott, of Somerset, Ky.; Engineer Taylor, of Somerset, Ky.; Baggage-master; name unknown. Passenger; name unknown. The injured are being cared for at Somerset at the expense of the railroad. None of them are fatally hurt. The accident was caused by the freight engineer moving without orders.

Clever Trick of a Swindler.

MASSILLON, O., Oct. 23.—An unknown sharper executed a pair of clever forgeries on Albright & Company and S. F. Weller. He manufactured a rubber stamp reading Massillon, Ohio, P. O., F. R. Shepley, P. M., and stamped two sheets of note paper with it in carmine ink. Beneath he wrote, addressing each firm by name, "Please cash this check and send bearer. I have cashed so many money orders I am short of money," signed F. R. Shepley, P. M. A boy picked up on the street, delivered the envelopes and returned to the sharper with the money.

Didn't Know It Was Loaded.

NEW ALBANY, Ind., Oct. 23.—Mrs. Michael Zimmerman and her sister were wrestling for the possession of a revolver at their home, in the suburbs of this city, when the weapon was discharged, the ball striking Mrs. Zimmerman in the right temple. At first it was thought she had been killed, but a surgical examination of the wound revealed the fact that the bullet had plowed its way around the face under the nose, and it was taken from her left cheek. She will recover.

Poorly Executed Will.

NORTH VERNON, Ind., Oct. 23.—In the circuit court of Bartholomew county Judge Keys rendered a decision setting aside the will of Mrs. Bolton, which involved the title to 500 acres of real estate, worth $40,000. It was the intention of Mrs. Bolton to place the title to the land in her two granddaughters, but the will was so poorly worded that it would not stand.

Gone With the Money.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 23.—Frank Houla, a contracting carpenter, of this city, has gone to parts unknown, leaving subcontractors in the lurch to the amount of $20,000.

A NEGRO DESPERADO

Shoots a Man and Then Robs Him of His Valuables.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 23.—A special to The Ledger from Mount Holy, N. J., gives the details of a desperate robbery and attempted murder which was committed in Mansfield township, Burlington county, last night. Louis Golstein, of 221 Second avenue, New York city, was on his way from that place to Burlington to visit a friend. He got off the train by mistake before he reached Burlington, and no other train leaving in a reasonable time he started to walk.

Soon after starting on his journey he was overtaken by a colored man, who engaged Golstein in conversation, and the two walked along together. While passing through a strip of woods the negro demanded his money. This Golstein refused and the negro shot him in the mouth. Another shot entered Golstein's body. The negro then secured the prostrate man's watch and purse, which contained about $45, and fled. Some farmers traversing the road later in the evening found the wounded man and brought him to a hospital here. The physicians think his injuries are fatal. People are scouring in all directions for the desperate negro and it is thought he will soon be captured.

Arrested on a Serious Charge.

ELMIRA, N. Y., Oct. 23.—M. C. Beardsley, a young man whose home is in Havana, N. Y., was arrested at Troy last night on complaint of Henry C. Smith, superintendent of the agencies of R. G. Dun & Company. The complaint against Beardsley is that of obtaining money under false pretenses. Beardsley and M. S. Clawson, a son of a prominent physician of Havana, organized what they called Dun's collection agency, and had headquarters in this city. They had no office, but received their mail at a postoffice box. Clawson came to Elmira every day, and attended to the correspondence, while Beardsley went through state securing subscriptions for the agency on the representation that it was a branch of R. G. Dun & Company. Beardsley and Clawson transacted a large business until one of their customers sent some bills to R. G. Dun & Company's lawful agent here, and the scheme was exposed. Beardsley has been taken to Tioga, Pa., where he is now locked up. Clawson was not arrested.

Killed on a Crossing.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 23.—A special to The Constitution from Rome says: A terrible accident occurred on the line of the Chattanooga, Rome and Columbus railroad. Four persons were killed, three instantly, and the fourth dying shortly afterwards. A southbound passenger train left Chattanooga on time and was running at a moderate rate of speed. Approaching Chickamauga, as the train dashed out of a cut, a covered wagon was upon a crossing. The engine struck the wagon and killed J. W. Jenkins, his wife and baby and Mrs. James Bowman, all of Walter county.

Beaten to Death by Tramps.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—Matthew Brazell, a well known resident of Desplaines, Ill., was brutally beaten to death last night. Shortly after 9 o'clock a neighbor passing Brazell's residence was attracted by the sound of groans in the vicinity of the barn. On investigating he found Mr. Brazell lying bleeding on the barn floor, his head crushed almost beyond recognition. He rallied enough to mutter "tramps killed," and died soon after assistance arrived. From his family it was learned that he had $600 in his pocket, and the condition of his clothing showed he had been robbed.

A Newspaper in Trouble.

UTICA, N. Y., Oct. 23.—At noon yesterday The Utica Morning Herald newspaper, job printing and bookbinding establishment was sold at receiver's sale to the highest bidder. There was only one bid, $5,000, by John A. Goodale, of Utica, for The Utica Morning Herald Publishing company, composed of as many of the creditors, as could be induced to join. The assets of the old firm were $36,399.85, and the liabilities $161,709.27.

Hope's Hope Realized.

SING SING, N. Y., Oct. 23.—Johnny Hope, son of Jimmy Hope, the famous bank robber, was pardoned by the governor yesterday after serving nine years, eight months and twenty days of the twenty years' sentence imposed upon him by Judge Cowing in July, 1879, for complicity in the robbery of the Manhattan savings institution, a crime for which young Hope has all along contended he was innocent.

An Indian Sentenced to Death.

MISSOULA, Mont., Oct. 23.—A Kootenai Indian named Pascal was yesterday found guilty of murder in the first degree and sentenced to be hanged. He is charged with killing James W. Dunn, of Ida Grove, Iowa, in the summer of 1889.

Mansion Burned.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Oct. 23.—The mansion of Banker Landon Thomas, in Summer-ville, a suburb of this city, was destroyed by fire last night. The loss is $20,000, almost covered by insurance.

Riot in Georgia.

ATLANTA, Oct. 23.—Governor Gordon has received from the sheriff of Coffee county a call for troops to suppress a riot of negroes against negroes. It is reported four men have been killed.

Thrasher Engine Explodes.

LITCHFIELD, Minn., Oct. 23.—The boiler of a thrasher engine burst near here Tuesday. Dennis Kelly, aged 12, was killed, and twelve persons injured, one fatally.

Jewelry Robbery.

HOLYOKE, Mass., Oct. 23.—Burglars entered Wilson's jewelry store here yesterday morning and secured nearly $1,000 worth of booty.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Information Sent Out by the Agricultural Department.

CATTLE AND SHEEP FOR EXPORT

Regulations for the Inspection of the Same and Where the Inspection Will Be Made—Census Returns—Other Dispatches from the National Capital.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The department of agriculture yesterday issued regulations for the inspection of cattle and sheep for export. The regulations require the chief of the bureau of animal industry to cause veterinary inspection to be made of all meat cattle and sheep to be exported from the United States to Great Britain and Ireland and the continent of Europe.

The inspection will be made at any of the following named stock yards: Kansas City, Mo.; Chicago, Buffalo, Pittsburg, and at the following ports of export viz.: Boston and Charlestown, Mass.; New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Norfolk and Newport News, Va. All cattle shipped from any of these yards must be tagged before being shipped to the ports of export. Cattle arriving at ports of export from other parts of the United States, will be tagged at the ports.

After inspection at the stock yards, cattle found free of disease and not exposed to disease will be tagged under the direction of the veterinary inspector and sent in cleaned and disinfected cars to the port of export. Animals will be re-inspected at the port of export. Railroad companies must furnish clean cars. Clean stock yards are also required. No ocean steamer will be allowed to receive more cattle than it can comfortably carry.

Regulations for the inspection and quarantine of neat cattle, sheep and other ruminants, and swine, imported into the United States, were also issued.

The following named ports are designated as quarantine stations: Boston, New York, Baltimore, San Diego, Brownsville, Paso del Norte, Eagle Pass, Laredo, Nogales, Arostook, and Bangor, Me.; Vermont, Vt.; Buffalo Creek, Niagara, Cape Vincent, Champlain and Oswegatchie, N. Y.; Detroit, Port Huron and Superior, Mich.; Minnesota and Duluth, Minn., and Puget Sound, Wash.

All cattle imported from any part of the world except North and South America are required to be accompanied by a statement from the local authorities of the district in which they have been for one year preceding the date of shipment, stating that no contagious pleuropneumonia, foot and mouth disease or rinderpest has existed in the district.

All native cattle imported into the United States from any part of the world except North, Central and South America, shall be subject to a quarantine of ninety days, and all sheep and other ruminants and swine, to a quarantine of fifteen days.

In case of the appearance of a contagious disease, the veterinary inspector will notify the bureau of animal industry, which shall have the station inspected, and on the confirmation of the report, the herd shall be disposed of according to the gravity of the affection. Food and attendance and other quarantine expenses must be provided by the owners of the cattle.

Census Office Report.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The census office yesterday announced the following population statistics of city and towns in Connecticut, with increases since 1880: Meriden town (including Meriden City) 25,418, increase 7,078; Meriden city 21,230, increase 5,690; Middletown (town, including Middletown city) 15,305, increase 3,473; Middletown city 9,012, increase 2,186; New Haven town and New Haven city (co-extensive) 85,981, increase 23,099; Norwich town (including Norwich city) 23,038, increase 1,895; Norwich city 16,192, increase 1,080; Waterbury town (including Waterbury city) 33,144, increase 12,374; Waterbury city 28,591, increase 10,785.

Treasury Decision.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The secretary of the treasury has instructed the collector of customs at San Francisco that certain steel rails now in bonded warehouse, and which have been retained from sale from time to time, at the request of the Oregon Pacific Railway company must not be released until all accrued duties additional and otherwise due on March 1, 1890, have been paid. The three years during which the rails could legally remain in warehouse, he says, has long since expired. All the duties accruing March 1, 1890, must be assessed under the law of March 3, 1883, and not under that of Oct. 1, 1890.

Improvements at the White House.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The president finds it hard to locate himself in the White House for work, owing to the painting, electric lighting and general improvement going on. He has been driven from his new office back to the library, and he will have to move from there again shortly to get out of the way of the workmen. Under the circumstances it has been suggested that it would be a good time to enjoy a little shooting, and thus escape the inconveniences of house cleaning and renovating for a while. He may probably carry this idea into effect in a day or so.

A Horse Retired.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The services of an old gray horse that has drawn the official coupe of the postmaster general for several years has been dispensed with by Mr. Wanamaker, who has substituted in his stead a valuable pair of chestnut horses, which the agent of the postoffice department recently purchased. The turnout is attracting a great deal of attention.

BIRCHALL'S CASE.

A Full Statement Prepared by the Condemned Prisoner.

TORONTO, Oct. 23.—The Globe publishes the first installment of a story of the Birchall case, prepared by the condemned man himself. "It has," says The Globe, "nothing to do with the autobiography upon which he is said to be intent, but was written by him for quite another purpose." Birchall admits that he was a swindler and that he meant to swindle Col. Benwell, but claims that young Benwell was in the plot. On the day of the murder, he says, Benwell went with him to Eastwood. It was arranged between them that Benwell should go from there to see certain persons at or near Woodstock, to whom Birchall had given him letters of introduction. Benwell was to make them believe that he wanted to buy a farm. This done, the two were to return to Eastwood and then to the falls, and Benwell was to write or cable to his father that everything was straight.

When the money, £500 pounds, arrived, they were to divide it. Meanwhile Pelly was to be victimized by being thrust into the first job that offered. This was all he was to get for the £160 he had paid to Birchall. But Benwell never came back from Woodstock. Birchall waited for him at the trysting place outside the town, and finally concluded that he had not met with a friendly reception at the hands of the persons to whom he had been sent, and that he had gone on to the others. Accordingly Birchall took the afternoon train for Hamilton, thinking that Benwell might overtake him there on another. The train did not come, and Birchall went on to the falls and waited there, and then proceeded to Buffalo. He admits that in going from the outskirts of Woodstock to the railroad he did his best to pass unobserved, explaining this conduct in a somewhat unsatisfactory manner. This is, in substance, the first installment of his statement.

A Brutal Assault.

DETROIT, Oct. 23.—A special to The News from Port Huron says: Last night a man named Pellett called at the house of James O'Hara, a wealthy farmer living near here, and asked for a drink of water. It was given to him, and while O'Hara's back was turned Pellett stabbed him several times. Mrs. O'Hara interfered and was also brutally pounded and stabbed. Mr. and Mrs. O'Hara, it is thought, will die. Pellett escaped, but officers are in pursuit. Robbery was the object of the assault.

The Franklin Fund.

BOSTON, Oct. 23.—The aldermen have notified the Massachusetts hospital Life Insurance company that at the end of six months the city will call upon it to turn over the principal and interest of the Franklin fund which now amounts to $368,000. The law requires that this term of notice be served. As yet no attachment has been placed on the funds here, and it is the opinion of the trustees that nothing will be done as to legal proceedings by the heirs until the Philadelphia suit is settled.

Mafia Successful.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 23.—The second trial of the Provenzenas for lying in wait and attempting to assassinate the Matranga gang was to have begun in the criminal court yesterday, but owing to the feeling against the Italians the district attorney has consented to a postponement of the case. This is a great disappointment to the public, who were anxious that the case should be disposed of, as it was expected that the workings of the Mafia would come out.

Both Dead Now.

KEWAUNEE, Wis., Oct. 23.—At Casco Albert Ludermeier, a young German farmer, who was married but a few days ago, shot and killed his wife, using a double-barrelled shotgun. He then blew out his own brains with the same weapon. Ludermeier and his wife were dead when discovered.

Attributed to Arsenic.

MOUNT VERNON, O., Oct. 23.—The mystery surrounding the condition of the body of Helen Stitley, supposed to be in a trance, has been cleared, the life-like appearance being caused by the large amount of arsenic absorbed in the system. Her mother will not allow her to be buried.

One More Victim.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 23.—The body of a woman was found in the Leland hotel ruins yesterday. It was dismembered and destroyed beyond recognition. It is thought to be either the body of Anna Padden or Mary Doyle, servants at the hotel.

A Wreck Marked.

BOSTON, Oct. 23.—A spar buoy, horizontal stripes, has been placed to mark the wreck of the schooner Louise Smith, sunk in Broad sound entrance to Boston harbor. A tubular lantern showing a white light has been placed on her mast.

A Revolver and Bullet Hole.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—A man who registered as H. Tryer at the hotel at No. 149 Washington street, Brooklyn, was found in his room yesterday with a revolver in his right hand and a bullet hole in his forehead.

Another Oil Reduction.

FINDLAY, O., Oct. 23.—The Standard Oil company has announced that it would hereafter pay but thirty cents a barrel for Buckeye oil. This is a reduction of seven and one-half cents in three weeks.

Not Guilty.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—James E. Maxwell, the letter carrier, who was indicted for robbing the mails, was yesterday acquitted by a jury in the United States circuit court.

House and Other Buildings.

SOUTH GRAFTON, Mass., Oct. 23.—Mrs. Cox's house and outbuildings were burned last night on Keith Hill. Loss about $17,000.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1890.

It is very evident that there is a systematic effort being made to boom Gov. Hill for President in 1892.

HON. CARL SCHURZ addressed the Massachusetts Reform Club of Boston on evening this week. He characterized the McKinley bill as the most monstrous measure ever passed by Congress. A special says: "An incidental mention of Mr. Cleveland's name was greeted with wild applause." This last piece of news will not be very pleasant to the Governor Hill boomers.

"In framing tariff measures, my friends, there are certain fundamental principles which ought to be observed, and I stated, I think fairly, the position of the Democratic party in that regard. In the first place, we insist that there should be little or no tariff upon the necessities of life. Secondly, we insist that so far as possible, there should be no tax upon raw material necessary to be used in manufacturing. These two principles we submit are essential for the best interests of this country, and upon those principles the Democratic party is willing to go into this contest and into every contest that awaits us in the future. [Applause.] We have nailed our flag to the mast, and there we shall remain until victory awaits us. [Loud applause.]—Governor Hill.

Cost of the Constitutional Convention.

There are one hundred members who draw $5 per day. The three clerks will not be allowed less than $10 per day each. The stenographer gets $35 per day; the cost of the pages is $12 per day. The Sergeant-at-Arms and Door-keeper will not get less than $18 per day.

Then there is the printing, which one cannot estimate the cost of till it is over, and several minor officials who get from $1.50 to $3.00 per day. Just figure what this amounts to for one day, and multiply by the time from September 8 to February 23, and you will be somewhat close about the cost of this convention, says the Lexington Leader.

Cheap John and His Clerks

John Wanamaker pays his female clerks $6 per week, and requires that out of it they pay their board, sixty cents a week car fare, and dress neatly and becomingly, so as to draw custom to his Cheap John counters.

Mr. Martin, Inspector of Factories for the State of Pennsylvania, reports: "I regard Wanamaker's establishment as a great half-way house on the road that leads to gilded dens of vice."

His words verbatim Wanamaker is worth $20,000,000, and says the Lord gave him his wealth. He spends a good deal of his time on his knees, too, and is, perhaps, the most expert fat-fryer in the Union.—Louisville Times.

A Republican Speaks for Paynter.

The Portsmouth Blade is a red hot Republican paper. It published a letter a few days ago from Quincy, Lewis County, which says:

"Hon. Thomas H. Paynter, present member of Congress, and the nominee of the Democratic party for re-election, spoke here some two weeks ago, and had a fair hearing. Mr. Paynter is a man of some prominence in law and politics, of pleasing address, fine appearance, affable, kind, obliging, and can accommodate himself to any style of meeting or grapple readily with any issue that may be sprung either previous or of long standing. His speech was very well received, as a large majority of the audience went there with that intention. The Democratic party could not have chosen a better-standard bearer in the district, and we have a great regard for Mr. Paynter, both as regards his attainments and social qualities."

Tom Paynter makes friends wherever he goes. The Democrats should take pride in seeing how large a majority they can roll up for him November 4th.

Cities With 100,000 People or More.

The census of nearly all the American cities has been completed, and they now stand as follows as regards population:

New York	1,513,501
Chicago	1,098,596
Philadelphia	1,044,894
Brooklyn	804,377
St. Louis	460,357
Boston	448,507
Baltimore	437,639
San Francisco	297,390
Cincinnati	286,369
Cleveland	261,546
Buffalo	255,543
New Orleans	241,995
Pittsburg	238,476
Washington	228,160
Detroit	217,791
Milwaukee	216,979
Newark	182,023
Louisville	185,000
Minneapolis	164,780
Jersey City	163,987
Rochester	135,302
Omaha	124,742
St. Paul	133,156
Providence	132,043
Denver	126,186
Indianapolis	125,001
Kansas City	125,001
Albany City	104,967

There were but twenty cities with over 100,000 in 1880, so that we have added eight to the list during the decade.

BRILLIANT

CLOAK OPENING

On the 22nd and 23rd instant, in all the best and most popular styles, far surpassing all others, being from the best manufacturers, who will send two of their best men to the opening. We extend to the ladies a cordial invitation to attend this elegant display.

Respectfully,

D. HUNT & SON.

Shoe Factories.

Our lively contemporary, the Maysville BULLETIN, has been advocating, with zest and ability, the establishment of a shoe factory in that thriving and beautiful Blue Grass city. We would be pleased to see success crown our contemporary's efforts—they are in the right direction.

No better industry can be conceived than the making of shoes, and it is one that is bound to grow from this on in the West. The East for years has been the great wholesale market for shoes, as it has for every other manufactured article; but the trend of manufacture, as of emigration, is to the West, and the shoe industry, although among the last to move its centre, will be one of the most important, as well as one of the most stable.

The shoe business of Portsmouth is assured, and we can afford to look with complacency upon the starting of similar factories in our neighboring cities; our manufacturers have for their market the West and South, and throughout this vast territory they have a firmly established and rapidly growing trade, and a multiplication of factories in this section of the country would only increase the demand for the Western made article.

By all means let the capital of Maysville be invested in such an enterprise; it will mean good returns to the investors and life for the city.—Portsmouth Times.

Religious.

Elder L. H. Reynolds has resigned as pastor of the Christian Church at North Middletown.

Mrs. Wm. Roads, of near Washington, is visiting relatives near Mt. Sterling and West Liberty.

Mr. B. W. Wood, of Louisville, was visiting his sister, Mrs. Metcalfe, near Washington, last week.

Miss Berry, of St. Joseph, Mo., is visiting the family of Mr. Chas. Knight, of the Washington vicinity.

Miss Tillie Ranson, of West Second street, is the guest of the Misses Owens, at "Crab Orchard Farm," near Washington.

Rev. Mr. Devault visited friends at Washington this week on his way home from Missouri, where he had been to see a brother and other relatives.

Mrs. J. P. Marshall of the Washington vicinity, who has been visiting in Washington City and Virginia for the last six weeks, is expected home in a few days.

Mr. George Humphreys and Miss Hattie Wood, of "Woodside" near Washington, have recently returned from a trip to their kinsfolk, the LaRues, at their beautiful home in Bourbon County. Mr. Humphreys leaves for California Nov. 1st.

The Broadway Christian Church, in Lexington, has already subscribed by its members $18,000 for the erection of a new and more commodious building on the present site. Work will begin shortly. Elder John Shouse, who resigned the pastorate of the church to the regret of his flock and to enter the field in behalf of the Bible College and the Midway Orphan School will be superseded in his charge by the Rev. Lynn Cave, of Virginia, one of the most talented and eloquent preachers the church has ever produced, and one whose fame has gone abroad through all the land.—Exchange.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

THE place, my friends, for surplus taxes is in the pockets of the people. [Applause.]—Governor Hill.

The Sullivan Case.

The petition for a change of venue in the above case was refused by Judge Cole yesterday afternoon. The case was then passed until this morning. Defendants' attorneys were engaged this morning in preparing affidavits in support of a motion for a continuance.

MYALL & SHACKLEFORD manufacture a fine line of carriage work. And as funeral directors they pay prompt attention to all orders.

A prominent physician and old army surgeon in eastern Iowa was called away from home for a few days. During his absence one of the children contracted a severe cold, and his wife bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for it. They were so much pleased with the remedy that they afterwards used several bottles at various times. He said, from his experience with it, he regarded it as the most reliable preparation in use for colds, and that it came the nearest being a specific of any medicine he had ever seen. For sale by Power & Reynolds, druggists.

Frills of Fashion.

Blue is the color in highest favor this season.

The serges used this season have a rough finish.

The new colors in underlinen are yellow and mauve.

Sleeves are to be bought in Paris ready to slip into any dress.

Satin will be worn more than usual for evening gowns this winter.

The trimming on toques and capotes is high both in the front and the back.

A blue black silk wrap Henrietta cloth on a brilliantine are the fabrics of which to make black dresses.

The corsets made at the present time are more supple and better adapted to each individual wearer than formerly.

A new bonnet box concocted in France is arranged with hooks on the side to which the hats are securely fastened.

Throwing the material around the neck and shoulders is a capital method of testing its becomingness before buying it.

There are numerous novelties in belts. The one known as the Norwegian is composed of pieces of leather mounted with metal.

Woolen muslins are taking the place of the organdies. Some resemble Nottingham lace, others are striped or plaided. All are stylish and durable.

What We Claim!

We do not claim to hold a "corner" on the Boots and Shoes of the country. The markets of the world are open to others as well as ourselves, and if they do not secure the advantages offered the fault does not lie at our door.

We do not seek business by disparaging the claims of others.

We DO claim, however, to lay under tribute the best market of the world to supply us, and that market is in America, where is found and used the best leathers, and where, also, is found the highest standard of excellence in workmanship and beauty of designs and styles.

No footwear in the world has the reputation for its lasting qualities and fine styles as that turned out from the factories of America.

It is from the best of these manufactories we cull our stock, which for extent and variety is without a rival in the State.

In fine, our qualities we guarantee, and challenge the world to surpass them. We also claim to sell these qualities at a saving to the people of 25 per cent. over other dealers.

Come and see our Fall and Winter stock of Boots and Shoes and you will become our customer.

The throngs that daily fill our house attest the truth of our claims.

The many hundreds who have worn our goods are calling for them again, because they are pleased.

All sales guaranteed.

Come and see us; we will save you money.

WHEN looking for wedding presents, or gifts of any kind, call at Kackley & McDougles.

STOP, if only for a moment, and look at Kackley & McDougles' immense line of pictures.

MR. FRANK W. LANDER, of Fleming, sold his farm of 120 acres, to Michael Cullen, for $9,000.

THE ladies of our city should not miss the grand cloak opening to-day and tomorrow at D. Hunt & Son's.

POSTMASTER HILL, of Mt. Olivet, is enjoying fresh strawberries, the second crop on the vines this season.

FITS, spasms, St. Vitus dance, nervousness, hysteria are soon cured by Dr. Miles' Nervine. Free samples at J. J. Wood's.

AMONG the Kentuckians who drew a prize in Uncle Sam's pension lottery this week was Wm. W. Davenport, of Mt. Carmel.

DR. BIRMAN, of Berlin, Germany, has bought of B. J. Tracey, of Lexington, the bay stallion, Macey's Hambletonian. Price said to be $10,000.

WHO said anything about clocks? Ballenger, the jeweler. His stock is complete, and they are warranted correct time-keepers. Buy of him.

BISHOP DUDLEY is at Washington City this week to attend the meeting of the supreme council of the thirty-third degree of Scottish Rite Masons.

A CONVENTION of the tobacco growers of Kentucky will be held at Lexington November 12th. Every county is asked to send at least three delegates.

LEE & DUDLEY's trotter, Dave Wilson, didn't fare as well at Winchester as he did at Lexington. He had the flag dropped on him at the former place.

MR. FRANK S. COLLINS, a merchant of Mill Creek, and Miss Bridget C. Moore, of Germantown, were married this morning at the Catholic Church in Brooksville.

THE public is cordially invited to call at Kackley & McDougles and inspect their line of fall and holiday pictures, on exhibition Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

THE Bourbon News says: "Mr. Harry Clay will quietly wed Miss Maggie, eldest daughter of Captain Dan. Turney, at the family residence on High street, next Tuesday."

HON. JAMES H. MULLIGAN, of Lexington, may make a couple of speeches in this county during the present campaign. If he does, one of them will be delivered at Mayesville.

ABRAHAM J. BARR, a wealthy farmer living near Carlisle, and Sarah E. Jones, daughter of a prominent stock-raiser a Headquarters, were married at Cincinnati.

THOMAS ROCHE, whose death, at Paris, is noticed elsewhere, left an estate valued at $100,000, says a special from that city. He was the leading shoe merchant of that place.

THE whirligig of time brings forth its revenges. The inventor of the puzzle called "pigs in clover" has been declared a lunatic, and sent to the asylum.—Exchange.

HALF a teaspoonful of sugar will nearly always revive a dying fire, says an exchange, and unlike coal oil, is perfectly safe. But it will prove rather expensive kindling.

MR. TOM ROCHE, of Paris, died yesterday. He had many friends in this city, who will regret to learn the sad news, and whose sympathy goes out to his wife in her great loss.

HON. T. F. HALLAM, of Covington, will speak at Cynthiana next Monday in the interest of the Democracy, and later in the week will fill an appointment at Flemingsburg.

FOR a cut, bruise, burn or scald, there is nothing equal to Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It heals the parts more quickly than any other application, and unless the injury is very severe, no scar is left. For sale by Power & Reynolds, druggists.

THAT pear tree at Professor Frost's is doing wonders this year, but Mr. E. H. Thomas, the boot and shoe man, goes the Professor one better. He has ripe raspberries, the second crop on the bushes this year. Some of them can be seen at the BULLETIN office.

MR. H. C. BARKLEY, of the Spot Cash Shoe Store, does not claim a "corner" on boots and shoes, but he does claim to cull his stock from the best factories in the land, and sells his goods at a saving of 25 per cent. over other dealers. Read what he says in his advertisement.

THE Dover News says: "W. G. Cline, of Dover, sold a pair of improved Chester white hogs last week, to P. S. Myers, of Robertson County, for $150 cash. This is the highest price ever paid for two hogs in Mason County, and shows plainly that there is lots of money in high bred stock."

IF the old soldiers of Aberdeen and vicinity are thinking of applying for a pension, let them go to Mr. Jesse Ellis, the pension attorney of that place. He secured this week a re-issue and handsome increase for James D. Howard, of Bradysville, Adams County. Mr. Howard is allowed $4 a month from June 1865, $8 a month from November, 1867, and $14 a month from October 1869.

REV. HENRY FORMAN, missionary to India, son of Rev. Charles W. Forman of this county and long a missionary in that far away land, will shortly return to England and America for the benefit of his wife's health. He married an English lady who had gone to India as a missionary. Young Mr. Forman is a grandson of that honored and distinguished missionary and scholar, the Rev. Dr. John Newton, so well known all over this country, and affectionately remembered by many persons in this county where he has visited.

At the annual meeting of the Grand Council of Kentucky Royal and Select Master Masons in Louisville this week the following officers were elected: Most Illustrious George A. Lewis, Grand High Priest; Right Illustrious Thos. P. Grant, Deputy Grand High Priest; Companion A. H. Gardner, Grand Treasurer; Companion L. D. Croninger, Grand Recorder. An important resolution adopted was one requiring all members of the Grand Council to be members of some Blue Lodge in the State. The Grand Chapter elected the following officers: Joshua D. Powers, Owensboro, Most Excellent Grand High Priest; Chas. H. Fisk, Covington, Deputy Grand High Priest; C. H. Johnson, Henderson, Grand King; John H. Leathers, Louisville, Grand Treasurer; Joseph H. Branham, Louisville, Grand Secretary; Rev. Dr. Young, Louisville, Grand Chaplain. A resolution to divide the State into districts for the purpose of insuring a uniformity of rank, after some discussion, was adopted.

River News.

Falling slowly at this point, but still a fine boating stage.

Due up to-night: Sherley for Portsmouth, Boston for Pomeroy, and Arden for Pittsburgh. Down: Telegraph.

Capt. Wm. Bays says that the new Henry M. Stanley will be placed in the Cincinnati and Kanawha trade, in charge of the Louise's crew. The Louise will succeed the B. T. Enos in the Portsmouth trade, and the latter will enter the Huntington and Gallipolis trade.

The towboat Harry Brown and tow came from New Orleans to Memphis last trip in less than four days. She ran from Helena to Memphis in less than six hours and 25 minutes. The boys had to hitch thirty-two empty coal barges to her at Memphis to keep her from climbing the bank and lighting out through the woods. She got scared at something leaving New Orleans and flew.—Courier-Journal.

The Railways.

It is reported that the end of the freight divisions on the C. and O. will be transferred from Russell to Ashland.

Mr. J. T. Harahan has been elected President of the Dubuque and Sioux City R. R., in addition to the position of Second Vice President of the Illinois Central.

The Louisville Times has the following: "The election of M. E. Ingalls as one of the directors of the Queen and Crescent road has aroused speculations as to its meaning. Some think it is a preliminary step to consolidating it with the Chesapeake and Ohio; others think that the Vanderbilts have secured some of its stock and put Mr. Ingalls in to represent them, while others are of the opinion that it is done to create a harmonious feeling between the roads which enter Cincinnati."

Here and There.

Mrs. Austin Holmes and son, Harry, are visiting on Walnut Hills, Cincinnati.

Mr. C. S. Welsh, representing a dental supply house of Indianapolis, is in town to-day on business.

Mrs. Margaret Nanchburch is visiting her sister, Mrs. Warbington, on Limestone street, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Martin.

Mr. L. H. Long and wife have returned from an extended tour through Illinois and Indiana. They stopped at Anderson, Ind., and were much interested in the natural gas wells at that place.

A Day's Racing.

The Mayeville Fair Company will hold a meeting at the fair grounds Thursday, Oct. 30th. Several races will be run. The entries will close the night before the above date.

Among the attractions already arranged for is a match race between the chestnut stallion Billy Enfield and the brown stallion Eros.

A Pleasing Sense.

Of health and strength renewed and of ease and comfort follows the use of Syrup of Figs, as it acts in harmony with nature to effectually cleanse the system when constive or bilious. For sale in 50c and $1 bottles by all leading druggists.

MINER'S MAXIMS.

A Good servant and a bad servant may look enough alike to pass for twins, but watch the difference in their service. Same with good and bad shoes.

Shoes look so much alike, though the grades are wide apart.

Why is it? Why, they're made to look alike. It's the good coin that's counterfeited. You would not buy a poor shoe if it showed poor, of course; but it won't show poor till it's worn. Then service shows the shoe. Well, then, how's a man to tell? He can't do it.

Only thing to do is to go where they always sell good shoes and are careful of their reputation. If ten thousand people have crossed the old bridge in safety, it's reasonable to suppose it won't break down with you. If ten thousand pairs of shoes bought at MINER'S have proved to be good shoes, the ten thousand and first pair are not likely to be bad.

See the point? And, then, the good shoes don't cost a cent more than the other kind, when you buy them at MINER'S.
